Eli Perkins on the New Postmaster General

thrage Tribue

Thomas L. James, the new postmaster general, being a New York City man, is not very well known in the west. In search of information about him, Meiville D. Landon (Eli Perkins), now stopping at the l'almer House, was ap proached

"Thomas L James," said Mr Landon,
"I have known in imitely for 24 years.
When I say intimately, I mean we were boys together. When I went to college at Madison University, Hamilton, Madison county, N. Y. Mr. James was a printer in that town. He printed the first article I ever wrote for the press. He was a fair faced, jovial, rosy cheeked young man. His complexion was as litray a filly, and is so still. His cheeked cay have the soft pink of the petting young lady in Unleago would be all if she had a complexion as fair, eachy as Mr James. Mr James, I say, was and is now a practical printer. He can set type as fast and correctly as the best type-setter in the life Inheuns office. His newspaper was the Democratic-Republican, and George R. Waldron was his partner."

"How were Mr James," politics." "Thomas L. James," said Mr Landon,

"He was always a stanch republican He was as strong an anti-slaveryite as his old friend Garret Smith, who lived only eighteen miles from him. He was the friend of all the young republicans in the county. He never wavered in the rejublican faith. His pen was for tree reputations and the land all ways. He was beloved by everybody in Hamilton, in fact, from James never had so enemy in his life. One of the subvertions of WASHINGTON, March 7, -The Republican senators assembled in caucus today for the purpose of interchanging quarters. One of the physicians of the party led the way along a narrow ment for the immediate organization of the seat through the ideop sacw, which terminated is the bern yard. Upon those present was that, if the Democrats urged for the Governorship of New estering a hat in the corner of the insist upon attempting to organize the committees while four Republican seats yard two salves were found lying on are vacant, the effort should be strenurude benches or tables. They were seonaly resisted as an endeavor to take cared in their positions by straps passing around their neeks and legs. The unfair advantage of the Republicans, bair from the inner surface of the upper and also as an injustice to the incoming and also as an injustice to the incoming senstors, whose wishes in regard to the parts of the thighe, and from the back committee assignments should be conport of the belly, had been shaved, making a clean patch of skin about four sulted. It was therefore determined inches square. One of the calves was that the invitation of the Democratic caucus for the Republicans to name the a fresh subject and ready for vaccinaminority membership of the committees tice. Taking his lancet, one of the physicians made little scarified patches should be declined, and that, if the Democrats fill out the lists and present on the skin like those made in vaccinathem to the senate for adoption the ting the arm of a human being. After Republicans would abstain from voting. The question will then arise whether a made, raceine virus, taken from a prequorum in the senate consists of a majority of the senators holding scats or of a majority when all the seats are now and then, seemed to suffer so little filled. There are now 37 Democratic that the operation would not have exsenators, 33 Republicans, and 2 Inde eited the compassion of even Mr. pendents, namely Judge Davis and Gen. Mahone. If, therefore, it be decided that a quorum consists merely of a majority of those holding seats, or if both Independents vote on the question of adopting the list, and thus make an indisputable quorum, the Republicans will have to accept the committee representation assigned them, but in the tops of these vesicles were removed the event they will endeavor to reorganize virus was expessed. The quills, which are two or three inches in length, were the senate, if it be in session, after the four vacancies are filled, provided the charged by simply rolling them in the positions which may be taken by the matter-fret one end and then the Independents shall by that time afford other. Ecough virus is taken from them a reasonable chance of success to one subject to vaccinate from 2,000 to reopening the contest for control. The Democrats take the ground that the business of the special session ought to ed, and it is consequently sent to be disposed of as rapidly as possible, that it cannot be transacted properly market. The department is now using without the formation of the regular committees and it is, therefore, their daty to proceed with the work of organization forthwith. It was suggested farmer said, that he had to ride over the country far and wide to find [enough of at the Republican caucus to day that the President should be advised to hold back his nominations until the Republican vacancies shall have been filled, GARFIELD'S SCHOOLMATES and thus prevent an adjournment to December which might otherwise be ordered by a majority after securing So much has been said about Gencontrol of the organization, and transeral Garfield's schoolmates, and so

CINCINNATI, O., March 7.-Edward Young, son of a prominent attorney of Georgetown, O., shot and killed George Ashmore about 10 o'clock Saturday night and seriously if not fatally wounded James Ashmore and Clinton Campbell. Young and James Ashmore had previously had several quarrels. The two Ashmores and Campbell were in Lowill & Inskeep's grocery on Saturday night, the Ashmores being intoxicated. As they were going out they met Young entering. High words followed, and Young, drawing a revolver, said, "Don't crowd me, or I'll hurt you." He then fired three shots, the first killing George Ashmore, the second striking Campbell in the left side and the third taking effect in James Ashmore's head. It is thought the latter may recover, but there is no hope for Campbell. Young is about 13 years old, and Jim Ashmore is about the same age. Young was arrested yesterday and will plead self-defense.

A GROWDED a -us greeted the appearance of the "Across the Contine bination at the opera house last night, and but tew left the hall at the cose of the highly sensational evertainment without pronouncing Oliver D. Byron and b. support one of the very best attiractions on the road. The day percrayed low and high life in the Gotham of America, and life on the plains at Station 47; and the thrilling situations as shown by the bills on the walls were faithfully presented. In brief, it was a "regular rip roarer," and kept the audience applauding generously to the end. The special features in roduced by Hagen, Radcliffe and Banks were greatly enjoyed. The company while in Decatur were guests at the St. Nicholas. They departed for Bloomington this morning where they appear to-night.

A BRIEF telegram from Monticello aunounces the sudden death of John Cole, who was stricken with paralysis at the Donne House in that town on the 6th inst. and expired within a very short time thereafter. The deceased was once a wealthy man and dealt largely in stock He was well known to many of our citizens. In 1874 he got involved in a quarrel with Wm. Ruby at Bement, which ended in Ruby shooting Cole twice in the head. Dr. Sibley, of this city, was called upon to attend Cole at that time, and be recovered, but he has been a cripple for seven years, as one of the balls from the pistol struck his spinsl column. He proved. walked about with a long staff, and was compelled to lean backward to avoid experiencing the most excruciating pain. Of late years he led a dissolute life.

Tax following are the official majori ties reported by the canvassing committee in the council chamber last night, as received by the various candidates at the late city election: Mayor Waggoner, 29; Marshal Hewes, 27; Treasurer Nelson, 124; Ald. Kuny, 108 Ald Gogerty, 53 The newly elected the Young Men's Christian Association at officers will enter upon their duties on the night of March 16th, when the next meet ing of the council will be held.

THE aldermen last night engaged in warm discussion on the gravel walk question, and some of them gave the nuisance a black eye. Alderman Hardy, from the fourth ward, is bitterly opposed to the abomination, and so are thousands of people in Decatur, who would readily sign a petition to have them wiped out of existence. It was finally decided to experiment with gravel walks a while longer.

ELSEWHERE in these columns to day will be found the call of the Republican nominating convention to be held at the court house on Friday, March 25th, when a full set of officers for Decatur townshey will be placed in the field. A most disgraceful and cowardly as sanit was made upon Patrick Hardiman, aged about 60 years, at Hervey City last evening between four and five o'clock. Hardiman is a peaceable Irishman, and for a number of years has been in the employ of Mr. Eli Ulcry, in Mt. Zion township, as a farm hand. According to Hardiman's story he went to Conn's store at Hervey City last evening, and while there he got to scuffling with two young men named Alexander Conn and Dick Secrist, who are said to be the terrors of that neighborhood. Hardiman threw Becrist upon the floor, and then the row commenced. Both of Hardiman's eyes were dressed in the deepest kind of mourning, and his face was scratched and tora. He was struck several times on the back of his head with a heavy weight, and the blows raised a large lump that is quite painful. While the fight was in progress Mr. Phillips interfered and by threatening to shoot down the assaulting parties if they touched the old managain, he doubtless saved Hardinan's life. Hardiman came to Decatur this torenoon and caused a state warrant to he issued by Justice Curtis for the arrest of Conn and Secrist. The condition of Hardiman's head attracted much attention from the public on the streets, and after hearing his story the general verdict was that the young men ought to be punished as severely as the law will permit. ATTORNEY AT LAW, BLUE MOUND, ILL.

An Ohl Mari Murderously Assaulted.

PROBABLY the proudest woman in Washington last night was the aged mother of President Garfield. She is about 80 years of age, but remarkably well preserved and healthy, and has hved to see her son "James," as she always calls him, the foremost man in the greatest nation on the face of the earth. She was present yesterday at the inauguration ceremonies, fistened attentively to the delivery of the inaugural address, and was the first to congratulate her son at its conclusion. No wonder that the inter-mingled tears of pride and gladness streamed down her wrinkled face as the President stooped down and kissed her cheek, while the proud huzzas of thousands of his countrymen and the thunder from the brazen throats of hundreds of cannon proclaimed him President of the United States. It was an event upon which any woman might well felicitate herself and, if we are not mistaken, Mrs. Garfield enjoys the proud distinction of being the first woman in this country who has had the supreme pleasure of standing by the side of her own son as he took the oath that made him the CONSUMPTION, COUGHS! chief magistrate of the republic. And James A. Garfield is a son of whom any Grecian, Roman or American mother might well be proud .- Chicago Journal
